ANOTHER FRAUD.

So it seems that the negro now in the purlieus of Congress, with hope of admission to the penetralia of the same, is not a representative of the down-treading millions of Africans now lifting up the heel on the Southern whites, but a carpet-bag black, "born free," on his own showing, "in the State of Illinois." What then does he, this free-born Illinois blackamoor, as a representative of the slave-born Louisiana blacks? Further, it seems he voted in Ohio for Mr. Lincoln in 1860, and as those so then voting were not, we know, overmuch tempted to rush forthwith into Louisiana, it is but fair to suppose this gentman, who carpet bagged from Illinois to Ohio, hardly carpet bagged into Louisiana, until, by such transit, the simple suffrage of the one paled before the chances of successful candidacy in the other. This bears date in 1867, and yet, in the name of ekal rights, the great heart of the nation, and so on, this Northern black pops up in 1868 as a representative of the late emancipated Southern slave, and is, by this little game, to legislate for that North, where, if he ever voted, it was by some trick, quirk, or device. What a game it is!

Knowing perfectly well, these Radical leaders, that the genuine Southern negro is, beyond all description, ignorant, uncouth, and incompetent, it was part of the reconstruction plan to hunt up exceptionally presentable negroes throughout the North and send them South, where, by collusion with the Federal officials, who manufactured majorities to suit, they were installed in the various reconstruction conventions and legislatures, and then held up as fair specimens of the average negro of the South. Thus, in South Carolina, the fellow who was Chairman of the Grant and Colfax State Executive Committee, delegate to Convention, and one of the so called State Senators, was a Massachusetts mulatto. Holding up this fraud's hands were a negro barber from this city of New York and a dusky parson of Philadelphia. In Georgia, also, "a representative Southern negro" was a fluent half-breed, once of the Boston bar, and afterward a Sing Sing convict, with a tawny divine from New Jersey as the inevitable seconder of this emissary's legislative course. So, in Florida, Alabama, and Mississippi, were and are Northern negroes who, by collusion, as stated, were juggled into the several conventions, and now, by underhand support of the Radical leaders, do the piteous, the imploratory, and the representative for the "poor down-trodden freedman of the South."

So far from carpet-bagism terminating with white vagabonds, its most virulent form—is in the employment of negroes from the loyal States. As Zion missionaries, as colporteurs, as secret-service agents, they have been dotted about in the South to organize, incite, and favorably represent that population with which they have almost nothing in common but egregious vanity and a dusky skin.—N. Y. World.

GREECE AND TURKEY.—The announcement that the government of Greece has rejected the demand of the Sultan of Turkey to disband its volunteer corps and forbid Grecial officials from participating in the Cretan insurrection, and the withdrawal of the Turkish minister from Athens, would seem to leave no recourse for the settlement of the questions at issue between the two powers but war. The majority of the inhabitants of Crete are Greek Christians, and there have been repeated insurrections against the Turkish government, which have only served, hitherto, to increase the weight of its yoke. The present insurrection has lasted about two years. The struggle upon which Greece appears to have been embarked would seem to be a desperate one, if she is going unaided into the conflict. The population is only a little over a million. The army numbers not quite ten thousand men, and the navy twenty seven vessels. The Turks proper number about 3,000,000 in European and 10,500,000 in Asiatic Turkey. The Slavic races in European Turkey are about 6,000,000, and are the principal agriculturalists in that region. The effective or permanent force of the army of the empire is 120,000 men, and the reserve at least 150,000. The navy consists of 64 vessels, of which 23 are steamers, and there are 34,000 marines and sailors fit for effective service. The combatants, it will thus be seen, are very unequally matched, and there would appear to be but little chance for Greece in such a contest, even if it be not the fact, as has been reported, that England and France support the demand of Turkey. It is true that in the contest for Grecian independence, which broke out in 1821, the Greeks exhibited the most brilliant courage, fortitude and resolution, and that their cause was finally crowned with success. But all Christendom sympathized with the cause of Grecian nationality and justice, and men, money and provisions were forwarded to them from Europe and America. Our own Webster, Clay and Everett raised their eloquent voices for them in this country, and finally, at the battle of Navarino, October 20, 1827, the combined squadrons of England, France and Russia destroyed the Turco-Egyptian fleet, and compelled the Sultan to come to terms. However hopeless for Greece the contest which now appears imminent may be, the sympathies generally of Christians, and of those who love liberty, will be on the side of what remains of classic and heroic Greece, even though it be "living Greece no more."—Balt. Sun.

A GRASS WIDOW IN TROUBLE.—A young woman, accompanied by a man named John Howard, reached this city a few days ago from Charlotte, N. C., and stopped at a well-known private boarding house, in a fashionable locality. They represented themselves as man and wife, and so registered as Mr. and Mrs. ——. After a day had elapsed, the so-called husband disappeared. The pretended wife became very much alarmed, and said that she presumed he had been foully dealt with, as he had a large sum of money in his possession. The sequel proved, however, that he had dealt foully with her, having cheated her out of her money as well as her virtue.—She was the wife of another, whom he had decoyed from home on the pretence of marrying her after she could be divorced. On the train hither he managed to swindle her out of two hundred and forty-eight dollars—all she had—and then deserted her as above described. She applied to the detective office for redress, and described Howard so accurately as to lead to his arrest. She has been sent home to arrange her little difficulty with her liege lord as best she may.—Charleston News.

George Francis Train has been liberated from his dungeon, and is now on his way to New York. On his arrival here he will immediately declare war with England.—N. Y. Times.

It is estimated that 120,000 people daily pass the Astor House, New York, on foot, and 65,000 in carriages.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

$1,000,000!

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK.....President.
ABRAM D POLHEMUS.....Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE.....Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER.....Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D., LL.D.....Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st. TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

A Most Wonderful and Successful Invention!

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever Exhibited.

Rev. M. W. STAPLES, Inventor and Patentee.

THIS BOILER is self-acting, and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes. The hot suds and steam, by the action of fire, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing it perfectly without any rubbing. It has been thoroughly tested and pronounced unequalled as a Clothes Washer, by those who have used it.

All fabrics, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket can be washed perfectly and with ease and without the aid of the rubbing-board. For Flannels it is invaluable, as the rubbing, rolling and pressing process must necessarily fall them more or less.

It is truly a labor and clothes saving invention. Washing will no longer be a hardship, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives.

The invention can be used in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

The saving in the wear of clothes will soon pay for the outlay.

It is estimated that 200 to 300 gallons of boiled suds pass through the clothes in thirty minutes; this being the longest time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes.

Hundreds of these Boilers are being sold each week giving perfect satisfaction.

Every Boiler sold guaranteed to do all we claim, or it may be returned.

Can be seen in full operation at Longee & Brother's.

We are selling COUNTY RIGHTS rapidly. Address

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with the eye shut?

So let them talk, puff and blow, but stay, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by Oxford Female Academy.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION will be resumed on Monday, the 4th of January next, under the direction of Miss MARIA-RET E. MITCHELL, as Principal, aided by Mrs. E. N. GRANT, and other competent instructors.

It is the determination of the Trustees and Principal that this shall be a School of the best grade.

No other guaranty of its character will be asked by those who know Miss Mitchell and Mrs. Grant. But the Trustees deem it right to state that these ladies are daughters of the late Professor Mitchell, of Chapel Hill, and were educated by their father with a view to the profession of teaching; and that they combine, with unusual attainments, a happy faculty for imparting instruction, and a thorough devotion to the business, which they have prosecuted with success for some years.

The undersigned, on behalf of the Principal, will furnish circulars stating terms, &c., on application.

Kittrell's Springs Female College.

GRANVILLE CO., N. C.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION will be resumed the second Wednesday in February.

The Annual Commencement will occur the last Wednesday in June.

REV. T. M. JONES, the former popular and accomplished President of Greensboro and Louisburg Female Colleges, has accepted the Presidency of this school, and will enter upon his duties in February. His long and successful experience, his eminent scholarship, and his devotion to the educational interests of the South, forbid any word of commendation.

REV. C. B. BIDDICK, formerly President, is still identified with the operations of the Institution, and retires from the care of the Literary Department, only to devote himself more exclusively to its other interests.

LOCATION not to be surpassed. The celebrated MINERAL WATERS an unfailing fountain of health. EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES complete. An extensive APPARATUS and LIBRARY. MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS new and of the best style.

Terms moderate as at any other school of similar grade.

Persons wishing to send their daughters will remember that we are on the great line of railroad leading North and South, within less than half-mile of Kittrell's Depot, Raleigh and Gaston Railroad.

For other particulars, apply to
REV. T. M. JONES, PRESIDENT,
or, to Rev. C. B. BIDDICK,
Pres. Board Directors.

THE RECESS.

Lous Dee! We breathe afresh. The Legislature has made the State the most acceptable Christmas present that it could have devised, by consenting, even for the short space of a single fortnight, to adjourn its labors and to pause awhile in its work of profligacy and extravagance. It is intimated, in certain quarters, we learn, that an effort will be made by the majority, upon their return, to exact mileage for going home and returning to Raleigh, or, failing in that, to demand per diem during the vacation; but even that, monstrous and characteristic as it would be, will be better than being paid to do nothing but mischief. It will not, at all events, be any worse than paying $600 per month to the Code Commission, even when "Judge" Tourgee is on his circuit and Judge Rodman and Mr. Barringer are at home, attending to their own personal affairs. It will not be any worse, either, than purchasing soap, toilet articles, pen knives, &c., for "loil" State officials, out of the scanty means in the Treasury; nor than the conduct of the Secretary of State in employing three Clerks and demanding perquisites for them, in the face of the fact that the Legislature prohibited his having more than one, on State account; and it will not be half so bad as "Gov." Holden's drawing a warrant on the State Treasurer for some $275, to pay for the erection of a platform for a partisan celebration!

"Gentle joy" go with the Legislature!—Our metropolitan hotels and restaurants may suffer for a while by their absence, but the people will have a temporary surcease of apprehension. Colored swains and damsels may miss their diurnal loiterings in the Capitol galleries, but that will be a deprivation to them fully atoned for by the other excitements of the approaching festive season. We shall miss the stentorian voice of French, the shrill piping of Ladies, the saintly presence of Blythe, the mild charity of Barrow, the Lieutenant Governor and his watch, and the Previous Question,—but these will all be forthcoming again anon. The familiar and shining faces of Eppes, "de archives of gravity," and of Cuffee Mayo, may disappear for a season, but we will have Jimmy Kinnie in their stead. The ground pea trade will decrease, but Farris will have time to clean out the Capitol. And so, all around, the arrangement fits nicely,—demonstrating, inconteistibly, that this is a world of compensations, and that every evil is counterbalanced by an off-setting good.

Yes, joy go with them. Could we have the way, where we only have the will, we would administer to each and all of the "loil" patriots such a measure of joy and content, at home, that they would be loth to leave it behind and come hither again. We should then be hailed as benefactors for all coming time, and the people would rise up and call us blessed!

It is probably hoping against hope, and yet it is to be hoped, nevertheless, that when the Legislature returns, its members may be disposed to carry out the views and represent the interests of the people, as they may be ascertained, by personal conference, during the recess. Let the people make known, in every emphatic manner which may present itself, their condemnation of the reckless and improvident legislation which is pending in the Assembly,—a legislation which threatens to crush them beneath a mountain of taxation and to raise the indebtedness of the State to about thirty-five millions of dollars. And yet, as we have said, we are apprehensive that their remonstrances will avail nothing. As was observed, on the floor of the House, some days since, by Mr. Pou, of Johnston, himself a Republican member, the men who are manipulating this extravagance do not expect ever again to be invested, by their constituency, with the powers which they abuse, and the now dominant faction in the Legislature will never more be the controlling party.

In another column, we publish the captions of Acts, &c., passed by the Legislature, so far. We are indebted for the list to the Standard, which is more in favor at Headquarters than we are. Some few acts, &c., ratified since Saturday, are not included. The Legislature has been in session five weeks, at an expense of nearly $50,000,—and behold the actual showing, to say nothing of meditated evils!

THE SUPREME COURT.

The Legislature takes its recess, to day, until the 4th of January. In the mean time, the Supreme Court will meet—and where? Up stairs in the cock-loft of the Capitol? We suppose so.

We understand that Judge Pearson has said that he would not go there, and that he would not hold the Court there. But the Chief Justice, unfortunately, has come under the sway of the carpet baggers, and we predict that the Court will be held just where "Cape Cod" Ashley and "Governor" Holden said it should be, though they designated the "cuddy," up stairs, without authority of law. Indeed, we hear that the lawyers say that the Court can not lawfully sit up in the "cuddy,"—that the law fixes the place of holding the Court in the elegant chamber of the Capitol, now occupied unlawfully by the "Cape Cod" carpet-bagger, "Ashley."

We suggest, however, that this makes no sort of difference, for "carpet-baggers" and Radicalism don't care a fig for law or Constitutions. Therefore, the Court can sit as well in the "cuddy," so far as the legality of the place goes, as at the right and lawful place.

Yes, the Court and Judge Pearson, at the head of it, will go into the cock-loft. Mark what we say. And the Legislature intends this, we take it, for it has done nothing in reference to the illegal and outrageous action of Mr. Ashley and "Gov." Holden in removing the law-library and records of the Court up stairs. So we go. Hurrah for Radical rule! It is glorious, and marks the age as one of progress—downwards!

Congress, to-day, in passing a bill affecting the militia status of the Southern States, left Georgia out, which indicates that that State is to be reconstructed again—made over once more on a more intensely radical plan than ever. Let us all thank good fortune that we do not dwell in Georgia.—New York Express, 17th.

"Let us thank good fortune that we do not dwell in Georgia!" We understand and appreciate the spirit in which the Express gives utterance to this sentiment. We know that it has boldly stood up for the Constitutional rights of the South, and has fearlessly and nobly resisted the lawless and treasonable faction that has outraged humanity and oppressed our suffering people. But that sentiment, in all the intensity of its selfishness, covers the spirit, we fear, which actuates and animates the great body of the Northern masses. Bring home to them a tithe of the humiliations, usurpations, insults and outrages, of which the white people of the South have been the victims, and there would be a howl of indignation and a clamor for resistance from one end of the North to the other. But they can look calmly upon our sufferings and indignities, and, folding their arms with a serene indifference, "thank fortune that we do not live there!" That is all. We have long since despaired of any sympathy, much less relief, from that quarter. Of course, there are thousands upon thousands of honorable exceptions, but the "great North," as represented in its majority, is cold, flinty, heartless and inexorably selfish, if not actually vindictive.

What is it to me, that my white brother is denied his Constitutional rights as a free citizen, and can neither vote nor hold office? What is it to me, that this terrible thing of negro supremacy hangs over the South like the gloom of Tartarus? What is it to me, that the land down there is infested with a horde of unprincipled adventurers, who are deluding the negroes into hatred of the whites, in order that they—these itinerant mendicants,—may get into places of power and plunder? What is it to me that the reins of government there are in the hands of unscrupulous and incompetent men, white and black? What is it to me that murder, arson, rape and pillage are, on these accounts, rife in that fair land? What is it to me that a crazy and malignant Congress proposes to arm one class of citizens there against another, with a certainty of violent collision and bloodshed? What are these things to me? "I, thank fortune, do not live there." That is the spirit, coupled with that other aspiration: "I thank thee, Lord, that I am not as other men are." The Pharisee who went to pray in the temple was the direct progenitor of the Puritans of New England.

We do not know that Georgia is to be pitied at being left out of the Militia bill, which is now in the hands of the President. Better her condition, with the prospect of renewed military law and of Federal troops in her midst, than reconstructed States with a Militia organized and armed on the basis of Radical and spurious "loilty!" Look at Arkansas.

"DARE" COUNTY.

Mr. Farrow, the Representative from Hyde, remarked, on the floor of the House, we have never seen a more flagrant instance of discourtesy and injustice than that exhibited, in that body, in the matter of the proposed new County of "Dare," to be formed out of portions of Hyde, Tyrrell and Currituck. We confess our exceeding surprise at the conduct of Col. Sinclair, who has ordinarily, heretofore, shown himself to be a fair and reasonable Representative. Whether the new County ought to be made or not, the fact that the project was sprung suddenly, and that the Representatives from two of the Counties interested asked for time to consult their people on the subject, should have secured to them, promptly, the courtesy. In other days, and in former Legislatures, the privilege would have been conceded, as a matter of course.

We learn that the project meets with no favor in the Counties of Hyde and Tyrrell, and that the formation of such a County would be a great imposition upon the people of both. Many of the people embraced within the new County would have farther to go to reach the Court House than at present, and the taxation involved for the construction of a Court House, jail, &c., would be infinitely greater than they can bear. There are said to be other grave objections to the scheme, totally disconnected from party considerations.

The persistent and officious intermeddling of outsiders in this matter, in opposition to the respectful representations and remonstrances of the gentlemen more immediately interested, is one of the evidences of the legislative degeneracy of the times.

Surgeon Pancoast, late of United States army, died in Washington Tuesday. The deceased was the nephew of Dr. Pancoast, of Philadelphia, the renowned surgeon.—When the war commenced in 1861, he was a surgeon in the army, and, though only twenty three years of age, was made medical director of the cavalry command of the entire army.

Butler, it seems, is still hankering after respectability. In the drawing for seats in the House of Representatives, Wednesday, his name not being called until all the best seats on the Republican side had been occupied, he deliberately marched over to the Democratic side of the House, and coolly took his seat among the Democrats.

Farnsworth, another Radical, followed Butler's example.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, Dec. 19 1868.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Scott presents a plan from the Commissioners of Onslow, dividing said County into Townships. Referred to the Committee on Townships.

On motion of Mr. Rich, the rules were suspended, and the bill authorizing the Public Treasurer to borrow money to meet the January interest was taken up and passed its third reading, unanimously.

On motion of Mr. Cook, the rules were suspended and the bill in reference to municipal elections was taken up and passed its several readings. [This bill prescribes the manner in which the returns of said elections shall be made.]

A communication was received from the Code Commission, enclosing a bill providing for the holding of special terms of the Superior Courts. Referred to Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Robbins presented the following communication, to wit:

To the Senate of North Carolina:

At the summer session of this General Assembly, I was appointed a member of the Committee for the location and purchase of a site for the Penitentiary.

It is well known that I entirely disapproved of the action taken in the matter, by the majority of said Committee. Eight thousand acres of poor land, fifteen or twenty miles from the site of the Penitentiary, were purchased by the majority, at twelve and a half dollars per acre, when the same land changed hands at sixty five cents per acre, only a week or two before that time. Certainly, nothing could be more extraordinary. The purchase of so much land, at any price, and in such a place, was useless and unwise, and, in my opinion, was not authorized by the spirit and intent of the act under which that Committee was appointed.

After the majority had indicated their decision, I was anxious to have the whole subject submitted again to this General Assembly for its judgment; and I must express my displeasure and surprise at the haste with which the papers were executed and the purchase money paid, thus making the bargain, as far as possible, irreversible.

The general plan of the institution, contemplated by the majority, I deem unwise and even visionary; and do not consider myself, therefore, a suitable person to assist in carrying it out.

For the foregoing, and other reasons, I beg that I may be excused from further service on said Committee, and that some other Senator may, if it is thought desirable, be appointed in my stead.

Very respectfully,
WM. M. ROBBINS.

Raleigh, Dec. 19, 1868.

Mr. Lassiter said that he was surprised at the character of this communication. The Senator from Rowan left the city after he had been informed, by the Superintendent of Public Works, that there would be a meeting of the Committee, and after he had urged him to stay and assist in making the location. He (Mr. R.) had told him that he was compelled to be absent, on account of sickness in his family, but there was an exciting campaign going on in the Senator's district about that time, and he had understood that the Senator had participated actively in it. The Senator was not here to share with us the onerous and responsible duties, and he did not think this was the proper time to go into the investigation of this matter, as a Committee had been appointed for that purpose, when he hoped the whole matter would be investigated thoroughly and impartially. He would like to know of the Senator why he did not come back, when he was notified that there would be a meeting, and share with us the burthen and responsibility.

Mr. Robbins said that he was with the Committee at several of their meetings, and had gone with them to inspect the different localities; and at none of these meetings did he hear any mention of purchasing the 8,000 acre tract. The Senator from Granville desires to know why I was not with the Committee, when I had been notified that there would be a meeting. The Senator will recollect that, at the last meeting I attended, I introduced a resolution, appointing a sub-Committee to visit other Penitentiaries, in order to ascertain what was needed, &c., which was unanimously adopted. I then asked for a leave of absence to visit home on account of sickness in my family, and at the time I heard the Committee were to meet again, I could not leave home, and did not. And at that meeting, Mr. President, this 8,000 acre purchase was made. I had thought that after the action of the Committee, in agreeing to appoint inspectors of other Penitentiaries, they would not think of making any permanent location, until that Committee had reported what observations they had made. When I heard of the purchase I regretted it. I thought it was a stretch of power, and was sorry that I was not present, when the step was taken, to enter my protest against it. I afterwards learned that the sub Committee was not appointed, because it was thought to be a stretch of their powers; but, Mr. President, I thought differently. They had the power to adopt such measures as to enable them to locate, to the best advantage to the State.

Again, on the second day after the General Assembly met, there was a call made for the report. It was delayed from some cause or other. On or about the third day, a meeting was called by the Governor, at which a Superintendent, Architect, &c., were appointed. I was there, but took little interest in it, because I was opposed to the action of the Committee, and felt that I could be of no advantage to them, differing entirely with them as to their views, relative to the powers granted in the bill. I believe, Mr. President, this delay was caused in order to seal the bargain and clinch the nail. It being known the people were clamoring and one half of the General Assembly dissatisfied, why this haste? The whole matter should be investigated thoroughly. I do not believe the Senator from Granville has intended to delay this report, and, in justice to that Senator, I will say that he, like myself, has felt the responsibility of being on this Committee. I believe his intentions are good, and if he erred, it was an error of the head, and not of the heart. But he has been imposed on, and the best thing he can do is to say so and wash his hands of it.

Mr. Rich moved that Mr. Robbins be excused from serving on the Committee.

A. H. Galloway, colored, objected.

The vote was taken, and, no quorum being present, the motion was lost.

On motion of Henry Eppes, colored, the Senate adjourned until Monday morning, 6 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

SATURDAY, Dec. 19, 1868.

House was called to order at 10 o'cock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Nicholson, of the House.

Journal read and approved.

Mr. Pou offered the following protest against the passage of Senate bill No. 55, (in regard to re-enacting and confirming the acts of the General Assembly issuing bonds to and for certain Railroads,) viz:

"The undersigned, members of the House of Representatives, one of the branches of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, do dissent from and protest against the passage of the act ratified Dec. 18, 1868, entitled "An act to ratify and confirm certain acts of the General Assembly, authorizing the issue of State bonds to and for certain Railroad Companies," for the following reasons:

1. Because that portion of the act which provides for the issue of bonds of the State to the amount of $2,000,000, as a subscription to the capital stock of the Chatham Railroad Company, is an attempt to give the credit of the State in aid of the said corporation, in palpable violation of sec. 5, art. v of the State Constitution. The second division of this section confines to two descriptions of Railroads the power of the General Assembly to give or lend the credit of the State in aid of any Railroad corporation, "unless the subject be submitted to a direct vote of the people of the State, and be approved by a majority of those who shall vote thereon." The two exceptions are, first, such Railroads as are unfinished at the time of the adoption of the Constitution; and, second, Railroads, in which the State had, at that time, a direct pecuniary interest.

The Chatham Railroad comes within neither exception. True there was, at the time of the adoption of the Constitution, a "Chatham Railroad Company," having a Road begun, but "unfinished." But that Chatham Railroad was less than fifty miles in length, extending westward no further than a point in the Coalfields. The Chatham Railroad to which the aid is attempted to be given by this bill is not less than one hundred and fifty miles long, extending westward to the South Carolina line. The Convention which framed the Constitution, by a contemporaneous ordinance, lent and to an amount not to exceed $1,200,000, for the purpose of enabling the then existing "Chatham Railroad Company to finish its Road." If the completion (or "finishing") of that Road had been let to a contractor, by the President and Directors, in consideration of that sum of $1,200,000, the Directors would not have had the hardihood now to claim, that the contract required of the contractor the completion of what is now known as the Chatham Railroad. With just as little propriety can the Directors now claim, that the inclusion of the original Chatham Railroad, within one of the aforesaid exceptions, also brings the present Chatham Railroad within the same exception.

It would be puerile to contend that the subscription of $2,000,000 to the capital stock of the Company, gives the State a direct pecuniary interest in the Road, and so includes the Road in the second exception.—Such a construction would annul the exception. Since the General Assembly might then "take stock" for the State in any kind of a corporation, in defiance of the people, and then lend to State aid without restraint. The words "or in which the State has a direct pecuniary interest," were clearly designed to enable the General Assembly to aid finished Roads or other finished works in which the State, at the time of the adoption of the Constitution, had large direct pecuniary interests, and which it was then by no means improbable might need the wholesome touch of the State to arrest decay, or require her helping hand to be lifted from under a load of debt. These considerations apply perhaps only to the subscription of the Chatham Railroad.

2. The attempt to lend aid to the Williamston and Tarboro Railroad and the Western North Carolina Railroad is violative of the spirit of the State Constitution and wholly impracticable. The Constitution limits taxation on property of all kinds to 66⅔ cents on the $100 of its true value in money for State and County taxes combined. This limit would be reached by the necessary expenses of the State and the counties, without the addition of more than 13 cents on the $100, as provided to be levied by the above recited act.

3. The act, besides being unconstitutional, is unwise, impolitic and fraught with injustice to many of the tax payers of the State. It allows the sale, immediate and unrestricted, by agents irresponsible to the State, of more than six millions of State bonds, while the Railroad Companies, it is believed, can make no immediate use of the money raised for them, at so great a sacrifice of the bonds of the State. It takes no adequate security for the State on the bonds lent or the stock subscribed. It offers no guarantee, such as all States usually require, of their agents or beneficiaries, that the appropriations will be used for Railroad purposes. Even supposing the Directors of the various Railroads should make the wisest and most economical application of the funds entrusted to them, the result of this legislation, if it should, contrary to our opinion, prove valid, would be that the State gets security to the extent only of about 45 cents on the 100 cents that she guarantees.

4. The undersigned particularly protest against the 6th section of this act, which limits the State to a one third stock vote in the Chatham Railroad management; while at the same time if the act becomes operative the State will own directly nearly two thirds of the entire stock of the road and while the State also furnishes the entire capital of the Company.

For the foregoing and many other reasons the undersigned respectfully dissent from and protest against the passage of the act and ask these reasons to be spread on the Journals.

The protest was read and ordered to be spread upon the Journal.

Mr. Hodgin presented a petition from certain citizens of Guilford county. Referred.

Mr. Farrow presented the report of the Commissioners of Hyde county. Referred.

J. S. Leary (colored,) presented a petition from certain citizens of Cumberland county. Referred.

On motion of Mr. Painter, the rules were suspended, and Senate resolution, No. 94, for the relief of J. W. Fisher, was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of J. S. Leary, (colored,) the rules were suspended, and House bill No. 147, in favor of R. W. Hardie late Sheriff of Cumberland county, was taken up and passed its several readings.

A message was received from the Senate, concurring in the House bill providing for a special term of the Superior Court in Craven county.

Also in the resolution raising a Committee to confer with the Tennessee Legislature, in regard to certain Railroad enterprises.

On motion of Mr. Downing, the House adjourned until 6 o'clock, A. M., Monday morning.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE.

Will be sold at Littleton, at Public Auction, to the highest bidder, on the 22nd day of December, 1868, a Tract of Land belonging to the heirs of William P. Little deceased, adjoining the lands of Charles Alston, John Myrick, B. Jones and others, containing about lying within half a mile of the Railroad near Littleton.

NINE HUNDRED ACRES,

Said lands were formerly sold under a decree of the Court of Equity of Halifax County, and purchased by Messrs. Mallory and Myrick, and now sold under a decree of the Court, because of non-payment of the price.

The terms of payment will be five per cent. cash, and the residue payable in equal instalments, upon a credit of 6, 12 and 18 months, with interest from the day of sale. Bond, with good security, will be required, and the purchaser let into possession, but the title will be withheld until payment be made. Any other terms will be made known on the day of sale.

Winchester Repeating Rifle!

TWO SHOTS A SECOND!!

THE ATTENTION of Dealers and Sportsmen is invited to this improved weapon, now becoming extremely popular wherever it is known. Gen. Wade Hampton says of it:

"I regard the Winchester as the most effective fire-arm I have ever seen. Its accuracy is remarkable, while its range and penetration equal any gun I have used. In my opinion, it is the best breech-loader yet invented."

Two sizes are made: A rifle, weighing nine and a-half pounds and carrying seventeen shots in magazine. Price $48.50. And a Carbine, weighing seven and a half pounds and carrying thirteen shots in magazine. Price $40. Cartridges $3 per hundred. Calibre of both arms is same as Colt's Army Pistol, 44-100 inch.

Ten per cent. discount on orders for 10 arms of a kind.

Sent by Express, C. O. D., on receipt of 20 per cent. of price. Liberal terms to dealers. For descriptive Circulars, &c., address

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am't Insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Lia. bilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

Non-Forfeiture Rules.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends then accumulated, will purchase taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with all manly qualities of the accomplished cement, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sent to this country under the name of Schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as the trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the puritan who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending domestic teas under their name, that these precautions so carefully thrown around these Schnapps would have prevented the introduction and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the inducement which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been claimed by manufacturers unobtainable, and, as such, may be safely prescribed by physicians.

DAVID L. MOTT, M. D.,
Pharmaceutical Chemist, New York.

26 PINE STREET, NEW YORK, Nov 21, 1867.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your Schiedam schnapps, with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself or to recommend to others, for medical purposes, the Schiedam Schnapps as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of Gin.

Very respectfully yours,
(Signed,) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

NEW YORK 55 CEDAR STREET, November 26, 1867.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have submitted to chemical analysis two bottles of "Schiedam Schnapps," which I took from a fresh package in your branded warehouse and find, as before, that the spirituous liquor is free from injurious ingredients or falsification: that it has the marks of being aged and not recently prepared by mechanical admixture of alcohol and aromatics.

Respectfully
FRED. F. MAYER, Chemist.

NEW YORK, Tuesday, May 1.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq:—

DEAR SIR:—The want of pure Wines and Liquors for medical purposes has been long felt by the profession, and thousands of lives have been sacrificed to the use of adulterated articles. Delirium tremens, and other diseases of the brain and nerves, so rife in this country, are very rare in Europe, owing, in a great degree, to the difference in the purity of the spirits used.

We have tested the several articles imported and sold by you, the ruling your Gin, which you sell under the name of Aromatic Schiedam schnapps, which we consider justly entitled to the high reputation it has acquired in this country; and from your long experience as a foreign importer, your Brandies, Wines and Liquors should meet with the same demand.

We would recommend you to appoint some of the respectable apothecaries in different parts of the city as agents for the sale of your Brandies and Wines, where the profession can obtain the same when needed for medicinal purposes.

Wishing you success in your new enterprise, &c.

We remain your obedient servants,

MONDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1868.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Jas. C. Harper et als. vs. S. W. Hagler and others: R. R. Wakefield, C. S. C., Caldwell county.

The Spring session of Louisburg Female College will commence on the 28th of January, under the auspices of Prof. W. F. Alderman. Prof. A. has had long experience, and, under his supervision, the excellent Institution will sustain its high reputation.

Notice of application to the Legislature for an Act to incorporate a Female College, under the patronage of the N. C. Conference M. E. Church, South.

The Spring session of Louisburg Male Academy will begin on the second Monday in January. Few institutions of learning have a more enviable name than this. It is under able control and is in one of the healthiest and most refined towns in the State.

Regular annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Raleigh National Bank of N. C., on the second Tuesday in January: Chas. Dewey, Cashier.

Candidate for Mayor: W. D. Haywood, Esq.

THE MAYORALTY.—It will be seen, by the announcement, in another column, that Wm. Dallas Haywood, Esq., announces himself as a candidate for the Mayoralty, at the ensuing Municipal election. In doing so, Mr. H. is impelled by the expressed wishes of a large number of his fellow citizens. The efficient and acceptable manner in which he has administered the duties of the office, in former years, the familiar to the people, and they have not forgotten, we are sure, the manner in which he was ousted from the position to which he had been elected, soon after the inauguration of the present State government.

We trust that good men, of both colors, will unite in electing Mr. Haywood. The election of such a man as Whitson, who has been put forward by a small faction as his opponent, will be an acknowledged scandal and reproach to the community.

LITTLE WILLIE COX.—No words can pourtray the sacredness of domestic grief or fathom the depths of family affliction, and yet the sympathy of friends, in the midst of both, is, and ought to be, a comfort.—We trust that it will not be regarded as an intrusion for us to say, that rarely has any event awakened such tender regrets in this community as the recent sad bereavement of Gen. and Mrs. Cox, in the death of their bright and beautiful little son, Willie. He was a child of unusual promise, petted and caressed by all who knew or saw him.—When his father was in camp around Petersburg, in the trying winter of 1864, and Mrs. Cox visited him, the dear little boy won the hearts of the rough, brave soldiers, by his sprightly manners and innocent prattle. Though bidding fair to realize the fondest anticipations of his parents, yet

"Death saw strange beauty on that cherub brow
And dashed it out."

Transplanted from earth to Heaven, little Willie blooms a beautiful flower in the Paradise of God!

LAURA KEENE.—We are pleased to learn, from the Messrs. Tucker, that this gifted lady, justly styled the "Queen of polite Comedy" in America, sustained by her fine New York Company, has engaged the Hall for this (Monday) and to-morrow evenings, and will give two exhibitions. Raleigh has never before been favored with the presence of so eminent an actress, and our citizens will doubtless avail themselves of the opportunity to witness her unequalled renditions in her line of the Drama. Her engagements will only allow of her remaining the two evenings, and the opportunity of hearing and seeing Laura Keene will be regretted, if missed by any one.

REGISTER! REGISTER!!—The Charter election for Mayor will take place on the 4th proximo. In order to vote, every man must register. The books are now open at the Mayor's Office, and will remain open only until the 25th inst. Thus far the Registration foots up: Whites 186, Blacks 202. We would fain hope that both whites and blacks will unite in securing a safe, competent and reputable city government. No party issues ought to be involved; they have nothing to do with the matter. Let every man REGISTER! Come up to-day!

THANKS.—The Messrs. Tucker desire, in this public manner, to return their grateful thanks to their fellow-citizens, of either color, who labored so earnestly and efficiently in saving their property from destruction on the morning of the recent fire. They have already testified their appreciation to some of them in a substantial manner.

"JAPANESE TOMMY" KILLED.—It is stated that in one of the late actions near Nergats, "Japanese Tommy," who attracted so much attention from the American ladies in the days of the embassy, was killed. He was shot through the breast and leg, but died fighting for his chief, true to the Pokagawa clan.

CAPTIONS

Of Laws and Resolutions passed by the General Assembly of the State at its present Session.

ACTS.

1. An act in regard to obtaining license to practice law in this State. (Provides that all persons who have heretofore obtained license from the Supreme Court to practice in the late County Courts shall be allowed to practice in the Superior Courts.)

2. An act to provide for the collection of taxes in Carteret county for the year 1868. (The tax lists were not furnished the sheriff, and in consequence the county is without means of supporting the poor and for the county purposes. This act authorizes the Commissioners to furnish the list and the sheriff to collect taxes.)

3. An act to incorporate the N. C. Mutual Home Insurance Company. (Creates certain parties a body corporate under this name, to insure against loss by fire, lightning or tornado. Requires the deposit of $20 000 with Public Treasurer and a subscribed capital stock of $100 000 before any policy is issued, and authorizes the issue of policies on both the Mutual and Stock plans.)

4. An act to provide for the registration of voters in all special elections in the State. (Allows all persons heretofore registered to vote in all special elections, and requires all other persons to register before voting, subject to all the requirements of the general registration law of the State.)

5. An act to incorporate the Land and Lumber Company of North Carolina. (Authorizes a capital stock, not exceeding $1 000,000, and requires $25,000 to be subscribed before the Company can organize. Purpose of the Company: Erecting saw mills, planing mills and all kinds of machinery. For the manufacture of doors, sash, blinds, barrels, tools and agricultural implements.)

6. An act for the relief of Jas. F. White former sheriff of Gaston county. (Authorizes the collection of arrearages of taxes for 1866-'67, provided that he shall not collect from any person who makes affidavit that he has already paid. Authority ceases July 1, 1869.)

7. An act to amend the charter of the Cheraw and Coalfield Railroad Company. (Authorizes the construction of the road from such a point on the South Carolina line as may be selected to a point on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad at or near Wadesboro, with the privilege of extending the same across the track of said road to the North Carolina Railroad at or near Salisbury. Allows the Company five years to complete road and changes name to Cheraw and Salisbury Railroad Company. Provides against discrimination in favor of either N. C. or S. C. Railroad.)

8. An act for the relief of P. T. Massey and E. G. Hill, of Johnston county. (Parties had been amerced in sum of $1,000 for non-payment of taxes. This act remits the judgment and allows their fees.)

9. An act to provide for the holding of municipal elections in North Carolina.—(Prohibits non residents from voting in municipal elections, and ten days residence constitutes a qualified voter.)

10. An act for the relief of James Rumley, late Clerk of the county Court of Carteret. (Releases him from judgment for failing to return to State Auditor abstract of taxables.)

11. An act to re-enact and confirm certain acts of the General Assembly authorizing the issue of State bonds to and for the Tarboro' and Williamston Railroad Company, and the Chatham Railroad Company.

12. An act to amend the charter of the city of Wilmington.

13. An act to amend the charter of the city of Newbern.

RESOLUTIONS.

1. Resolution in favor of Sheriffs. (Allows 10 cents mileage for each mile traveled for making election returns.)

2. Resolution allowing mileage and per diem to members banned by the Fourteenth Amendment.

3. Resolution for recess from December 21, 1868 to Jan. 4, 1869.

4. Resolution providing a Committee of Investigation.

5. Resolution on Tobacco tax. [Requests Senators and Representatives in Congress to endeavor to have said tax reduced to 10 cents per pound.]

6. Resolution for relief of James Cansler, Sheriff of Macon county. (Releases him from penalty for non-payment of taxes in the time prescribed by law.)

7. Resolution in favor of the Clerk of Haywood county Court. [Releases him from judgment of $1,000 for failing to make due return of abstract of taxation to the Public Auditor.]

8. Resolution to raise a Joint Committee to investigate the management of the Bank of North Carolina and Bank of Cape Fear. [Empowers the Committee to examine books, employ counsel, and send for persons and papers, and report what legislation is necessary or practicable to secure the best interest of the State in these institutions.]

9. Resolution providing for the appointment of a Committee to inquire into all the facts attending the purchase of the site for the Penitentiary and other property, with power to send for persons, swear witnesses, and report on or before Jan. 15, 1869.

CHIRIQUI IMAGES.—We have had the pleasure of examining a quantity of gold received by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., from Honduras, in payment for their medicines, which are sold throughout Central America.—Among massive crosses, bracelets, and chains, are the rude images which have been taken from the graves of the Chiriqui chiefs—birds, turtles, serpents, bugs and reptiles done in solid gold. They carry us back beyond historic times, to periods and places where barbarism reigned supreme. They seem to come here now in mute appeal from the winding sheets of their ancestors, to ask for the simple Indians in the mountains medical protection from cultivated skill, against diseases which gather them up in too early graves. Ignorant and unlettered as they are, they have learned of the white man enough to know where to apply for relief, and what will bring it. Our well known townsmen above named inform us that they require their remittances from foreign counties now to be made in silver and gold.—Lowell (Mass) Sentinel.

VOLCANOES IN THE MOON.—Professor Winloch, of Harvard University, reports that he has seen a volcano in active eruption in the moon during the nights of December 1st and 2d. During the past year astronomers have differed in opinion as to the disappearance of the crater Linnæus, marked on the best charts of the moon's surface till 1868. The destruction of this crater, if it should be the case, is stated to be the first evidence of actual observed changes going on at the surface of the moon. The observations of Professor Winloch would seem to confirm the conclusions of other astronomers on this subject. The foreign journals announce that Professor J. H. Madler, of Bonn, who is celebrated on account of the moon charts prepared by himself, has written a letter on this subject. Madler has been for many years nearly blind, but the disappearance of the crater Linnæus interests him as well as other eminent astronomers.

THE LATEST SWINDLE.—The New York swindlers have invented a new mode of doing business, modus operandi of which is thus detailed:

"Some few days ago an elegantly dressed lady, accompanied by a well-dressed gentleman, entered the store of a prominent jeweller and asked to be shown some diamonds. A costly tray was handed them by the gentlemanly and obliging clerk, and as they were examining and "choosing, comparing and rejecting," the clerk's attention was attracted by the entrance of a man who beckoned him cautiously aside, and showing a star concealed beneath his coat, informed the clerk that he was an officer, and that he had been watching the couple at the counter for some time. He advised the clerk not to interfere with them, but show them what they asked for, and, if they attempted to secrete anything he would arrest them. The clerk soon noticed that the suspected couple had quietly stowed away several valuable diamond rings, and at this juncture another person entered the store, also bearing a star beneath his coat, and at once gently tapped the genteel pair on the shoulders, blandly requested the pleasure of their society at the police station. The first officer told the clerk that the prisoners would have to be searched, and that he would then return the stolen property in an hour or so. The confiding clerk assented, and the prisoners and captors disappeared. The proprietors have thus far looked in vain for the glimmer of their returning diamonds, and the men who have the right to wear stars are looking for the pretended policemen."

A GOOD REPUTE.—The reputation for honesty and correct dealing that 'Judge' Tourgee enjoys at his home in Guilford among his acquaintances, can be judged by the following little circumstance: The Judge directly after the surrender bargained for and took possession of the West Green Nurseries, near Greensboro, but forgot to fulfill his part of the contract, and consequently was ousted. When the former owner again took possession of the Nurseries, he caused all the trees, plants, &c., put out and marked by Tourgee to be pulled up, being afraid the man had planted common stock, and had labelled it with the names of choice varieties in order to swindle purchasers.—Greensboro Times.

GEN. JOSEPH E. JOHNSTON.—This distinguished gentleman is now acting as agent for the States of Georgia and Alabama, of the New York Life Insurance, and the Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance, Companies—both mammoth corporations, aggregating a capital of nearly thirty millions.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of Scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of anti-strumous virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofula possesses in the blood the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as scrofulous or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be so reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, licentious habits, unwholesome food, and depressing vices generally, produce it. Wealthy constitutions, where not fortified by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the robust, also, whose turbid blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often constitutionally, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on immunity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, for Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Ears and Eyes, and other eruptive or visible forms of the diseases caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is entitled as to be indispensable. And in the more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and other affections of the muscular and nervous systems, the Sarsaparilla, through its purifying power, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself achieve these results. It is aided by the extracts combined with it, of still greater power, so potent is the union of healing virtues, Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases in general, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by the invigorating and purifying effect of our Sarsaparilla. Rheumatism and Gout, often dependent on the accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, have their remedy also in this medicine. For Liver Complaints, torpidity, inflammation, abcess, etc., caused by rankling poisons in the blood, we unhesitatingly recommend the Sarsaparilla.

This medicine restores health and vigor where no specific disease can be distinguished. Its restorative power is soon felt by those who are Languid, Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and afflicted with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or who are troubled with any or some of those effective symptomatic of weakness. Many, after taking it for General Debility, have written us of the youthful vigor imparted to their nervous systems, which seemed buoyant with that perfect life they thought had departed with the years of age. Others, whose fountains of life were always sterile, acknowledge their obligations to it for an obvious change.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in no case injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH.]

HORRIBLE ASSASSINATION IN CHARLOTTE—TWO NEGROES KILL A WHITE MAN—EXCITEMENT IN THE COMMUNITY,—DANGER OF LYNCH LAW.

CHARLOTTE, N. C. Dec. 19, P. M.

There is intense excitement here over the assassination of Mr. John Gleason, a respected merchant.

The facts are as follows: Mr. Gleason had an altercation with a negro, named Lee Dunlap for which both were arrested, and, when being examined by the Mayor high words again ensued between them. Gleason called the negro "a liar," whereupon the latter deliberately drew his pistol and, firing, shot Gleason twice, inflicting wounds that would have been fatal, but he met his fate sooner at the hands of another assassin.

Upon being shot, with the natural instinct of any man, Gleason ran from the Mayor's office, it is supposed to procure means of defence; but as he passed through the door, he was felled by a blow from the club of a negro policeman named Sebenck, and never spoke again.

It is stated that the Chief of Police told the last assassin he was justified in what he did, and further that he should have used his pistol and shot another white man, too.

The people are still in a high state of excitement, and it is not at all improbable that the jail will be broken open, and Judge Lynch called into requisition to-night.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19, P. M.

The President has nominated Geo. W. Colby, Collector for the Second District of Alabama; Otis H. Russell, for the Fourth District of Virginia; Robert K. Boyd, for the Second District of Tennessee; Albert G. Ryan, for the First District of Arkansas; Lloyd O. Waddell, for Assessor for the First District of Georgia; Thomas A. Burdett, for the First District of Mississippi; James Davis, Postmaster for Memphis, and Thos. M. Stillwell, Minister to Venezuela.

Fifty thousand dollars in fractional currency have been shipped to Charleston.

Seward testified before the Reconstruction Committee, that the expense of the Alaska purchase did not exceed five hundred dollars at the State Department.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19th, P. M.

SENATE.—The Chair presented a memorial from fifteen hundred citizens of Stockholm, who desired assistance to immigrate.

Pomeroy presented another Georgia Bill, "providing for the re-assembling of the Constitutional Convention, within thirty days, to construct and organize law, and to define more clearly the rights of colored citizens. It forbids the meeting of the Legislature until the required amendment to the Constitution is adopted.

The Senate refused to consider the copper tariff bill, by a vote of 22 to 25.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Dec. 19, P. M.

Hunnicutt's paper, the New Nation, which stopped its Daily issue, some weeks since, was totally suspended to-day.

The Editor reproaches the Republican managers here with having proscribed him, and announces himself as a candidate for Congress in this District, in opposition to the regular nominee.

FROM SOUTH CAROLINA.

COLUMBIA, Dec. 19, P. M.

The State Senate, to-day, revoked the sentence of suspension of Senator Leslie, of Barnwell county, and re-admitted him to his seat.

On re-appearing, Senator Leslie made a brief address, acknowledging the magnanimity of the Senators and hoping that all former animosities would be buried, and, in the language of the worthy President elect, he desired to say: "Let us have peace."

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Dec. 19, P. M.

The announcement of the sinking of the Greek steamer Ercole is not confirmed, officially.

The utter inability of the great powers of Europe to control the action of Greece in the pending troubles with Turkey excites distrust in financial circles here, and a general falling off in all mooted values is feared.

The press of London unite in urging the great powers to a final remonstrance.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:

Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $330,942,66.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance, and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

OF

NEW YORK.

THE rapid advancement of "THE EQUITABLE," to the very front rank of American Life Insurance Companies, the unprecedented amount of its new business for the year ending September 30th, 1868, being over

FIFTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS,

the large accumulation by it of EIGHT MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, together with an annual income of FIVE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, afford the very best evidences of its popularity, success and reliability.

A brief comparison of the Society's business for the first nine years of its organization, will best illustrate its remarkable progress.

BUILDING ON THE SAND.

'Tis well to use the good to end,
For so the world hath done
Since myrtles grew, and roses blew,
And morning brought the sun.
But have a care, ye young and fair,
Be sure you pledge with truth;
Be certain that your love will wear
Beyond the days of youth!
For if ye give not heart for heart,
As well as hand for hand,
You'll find you've played the "unwise" part,
And "built upon the sand."

'Tis well to save; 'tis well to have
A goodly store of gold,
And hold enough of shining stuff,
For charity is cold.
But place not all your hope and trust
In what the deep mine brings;
We cannot live on yellow dust
Unmixed with purer things.
And he who piles up wealth alone,
Will often have to stand
Beside his coffer-chest, and own
'Tis built upon the sand."

'Tis good to speak in kindly guise,
And soothe where'er we can;
For speech should bind the human mind,
And unite man to man.
But stay not at the gentle words;
Love deeds with language dwell;
The one woo pities starving birds,
Shou d scatter crumbs as well.
The cheery that is warm and true
Must lend a helping hand,
For those who talk, yet fail to do,
But "build upon the sand."

NEWS ITEMS.

Some time last summer a man named Wardsworth seduced a Miss Sue McKibbon, of Harris' Station, Alabama. As soon as the girl's father learned of her disgrace he drove her away, and Wardsworth then sent her to Tennessee. On Thursday evening last, the young lady's brother, Mr. Ed. McKibbon, met Wardsworth at Harris' Station, and commenced firing on him with a Colt's repeater, two shots taking effect, killing him almost instantly.

The Knoxville, Tenn., Press gives an account of a terrible accident near that place on the 10th instant. A little daughter of Mr. Barger, aged about four years, was parching corn at the fire place, when the mother stepped in the garden for a few moments. Upon re-entering the house she was horror-stricken to find the child standing in the middle of the room with every thread of clothing burnt from her body, and her face so mutilated by the fire as to be scarcely recognizable. Those who saw the child describe her appearance as horrible in the extreme. Her hair was burnt off, her eyes were out, and the flesh of her face was dropping from the bones. From head to foot she was literally roasted, yet strange to say she lived several hours after the accident.

On Wednesday, the 23d of December, an election is to be held in Florida for a Representative to the Forty-first Congress, ten State Senators and five Representatives.—These legislative elections are to fill vacancies caused by death and disqualification. The Governor declared some seats vacant because of the holding of other offices by the members, and this was one cause of the difficulty between him and the Legislature. The Democratic candidate is General Wm. D. Barnes, of Marianna. Hamilton, the member-elect to the present Congress, and a negro, are the Radical candidates.

A negro attempted to violate the person of a white lady near Brownsville, Tennessee, last Monday night, but was foiled in the attempt. The next morning he was found hanging to a tree near the scene of the outrage.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

FIRST CLASS NEWSPAPER.

NORTH CAROLINA PAPERS.

DAILY AND WEEKLY JOURNAL.
WILMINGTON, N. C.

This is the oldest Daily in the State, a leading Democratic journal, located in the largest commercial city in the State, and is a large and ably conducted newspaper. Its circulation is extensive and increasing, and it is a capital advertising sheet. We have no better paper in the State. Price of Daily, $10 per annum. Weekly $3. Address ENGELHARD & PRICE,
Wilmington, Sept. 4-tf Proprietors.

THE MORNING STAR,
WILMINGTON, N. C.

This is a young Daily, still in its first volume and, by its sprightliness and energy, has a growing circulation. It is a warm supporter of Seymour and Blair, and is doing good service. It is a good medium for advertisers and merits the patronage of the public. Price of Daily $5 per year. Address W. H. BERNARD,
Wilmington, Sept. 4-tf Proprietor.

THE SOUTHERNER,
TARBORO', N. C.

Our friend, Capt. Biggs, is giving to the public a capital Weekly, ardent in its advocacy of Democratic principles. It is located in the rich Cotton County of Edgecombe, and in one of the most thrifty villages of the State, among an energetic people. It has a good circulation and advertising patronage. Price $3 per annum. Address WM. BIGGS,
Tarboro', Sept 4 tf Proprietor.

SEMI-WEEKLY INDEX,
HENDERSON, N. C.

This is an excellent Conservative journal, conducted with spirit and energy, and well deserves the patronage of the public. It is located on the Raleigh & Gas on Railroad, in a fine Wheat and Tobacco region, and is an excellent advertising medium. Its terms are moderate. It is now published weekly at $3 per annum, and on the 24 of October the Semi-Weekly will be issued at $5 per annum. Address FURMAN & NEWBY,
Henderson, N. C., Sept. 4-tf Proprietors.

THE RECORDER,
HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

Dennis Heartt, Esq., the oldest Editor living in the South, continues to publish the Recorder, and, though nearly ninety years of age, performs the duties of Editor and Foreman of his office. His paper indicates the quiet, truthful and reliable character of its Editor. It stands up for the Constitution and the Union, and supports Seymour and Blair. Price $3. Address
Sept. 9-tf DENNIS HEARTT.

ROANOKE NEWS,
WELDON, N. C.

This is an excellent Semi-Weekly paper, published at the junction of four Railroads. It is located in a fine corn and cotton country, and is well conducted. It is thoroughly Democratic. Its circulation is good and it is a good advertising medium. Price $5 per annum. Address STONE & UZZELL,
Weldon, N. C. Sept. 4-tf Proprietors.

WARRENTON COURIER,
WARRENTON, N. C.

The Proprietor, I. H. Bennett, is giving his readers a good Weekly Democratic journal. It is located in an exce lent Wheat and Tobacco region, and among an intelligent population. It is a good advertising sheet Price $3 per annum. Address I. H. BENNETT,
Warrenton, Sept. 4-tf Proprietor.

THE TRANSCRIPT,
EDENTON, N. C.

This excellent Weekly has been revived recently and deserves patronage. It is published in a good Corn, Wheat and Cotton section, and in the midst of the best fishing portion of the State. It goes warmly for Seymour and Blair. Price $3. Address WM. BRENAN.
Sept. 9-tf

THE PLAINDEALER,
WILSON, N. C.

THE REASONS WHY:—Here is the LARGEST ASSORTMENT in Raleigh,
Here is the STYLE;
Here the "ONE PRICE" system is strictly adhered to;
Here are the LOWEST PRICES in the City;
He sells for CASH; therefore high prices are not essential to success. The man who pays his money at this House contributes nothing towards paying bad debts made by others who "never mind the price."
Great pains taken in fitting the customer, and polite attention shown under all circumstances.

Notice.

APPLICATION will be made to the present General Assembly for the passage of a law to pay to the heirs of Wm. P. Little, deceased the sum paid by the United States to the State of North Carolina for purchase of the site whereon Fort Macon is located. GEO LITTLE,
Dec 1-d1t4 w1t Executor.

AN ACT

IN RELATION TO THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF CLERKS OF SUPERIOR COURTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That as this act will be incorporated in the general act respecting the practice and procedure of the Courts, required to be reported to the General Assembly at its present session, by the commissioners appointed for that purpose, it will be printed in the general act and not elsewhere among the acts of this General Assembly, unless otherwise hereafter directed.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of State is required to have the third section of this act, and that portion relating to the Superior Court Clerks, printed at least weekly in four papers published in this State, and the sum necessary for that purpose is hereby appropriated from any monies in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. The terms of the several Superior Courts of this State shall begin in each year at the times hereinafter stated, and shall continue to be held for two weeks (Sundays and legal holidays excepted,) unless the business shall be sooner disposed of.
